Course Overview

Prepare for your Maritime and Coastguard Agency (MCA) Chief Mates orals examination.

This course is designed to accommodate seafarers who have followed a Foundation Degree (Fd) route during their cadetship and are now seeking their Chief Mates (Unlimited) Certificate of Competency (CoC). This course would also benefit officers who have followed a HND route, who seek an extended preparation period.

This is an intensive programme of study that summarises the knowledge and understanding required by Chief Mates who are employed aboard merchant vessels.

Techniques to help you to impart expert knowledge succinctly whilst portraying a high level of management presence are taught to help you to express your knowledge during the oral examination interview.

Entry Requirements

Maritime and Coastguard Agency (MCA) recognised Officer of the Watch Certificate of Competency (Unlimited – II/1) and a Foundation Degree in Nautical Science/HND in Nautical Science
