

Product Code: 5301

Minimum Industry Safety Training Standard

To achieve this course the learner will need to complete the 5 mandatory units.

Unit Code and Title:	Outcomes:
OIS-175, Major Accident Hazards	<ol style="list-style-type: none">1. The Legislative Framework surrounding the offshore environment.2. Major Hazards present in the offshore environment.3. The significance of an installation's Safety Case and personal access to the documentation.4. The concept of Asset Integrity and employer and employee responsibility for Asset Integrity.
OIS-176, Workplace Hazards and Personal Safety	<ol style="list-style-type: none">1. Typical workplace hazards to be found in the offshore environment.2. The relevant IOGP Life Saving Rules associated with typical workplace hazards.3. Company Specific Life Saving / Golden Rules.4. How Personal Actions might influence safety.5. The role of safety committees, safety meetings and safety representatives offshore.6. The elements of a good individual lift, a team lift with appropriate communications and correct loading / unloading methods for using a trolley.
OIS-177, Risk Management	<ol style="list-style-type: none">1. Risk assessment and risk management in an offshore environment.2. Risk Intervention Systems.3. Conducting risk assessment (using a risk matrix), participate in a toolbox talk and conduct an effective risk intervention.
OIS-178, Control of Work	<ol style="list-style-type: none">1. The principles of a Safety Management System.2. Principles and Objectives of a PTW system and how permits are generated.3. Personal responsibility in the PTW system.4. How to identify controls as an integral part of the Permit to Work process for a particular task.
OIS-179, Helicopter Safety	<ol style="list-style-type: none">1. Key principles of and roles in Helicopter Safety.